The Honorable Karen L. Haas
Clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives
Office of the Clerk
U.S. Capitol, Room H154
Washington, DC 20515-6601

Dear Ms. Haas:

The U.S. House Committee on Ethics "Guide for Financial Disclosure Statements and Periodic Transaction Reports" states (on page three) that "Individuals are required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement once they 'qualify' as a candidate by raising or spending more than $5,000 in a campaign for election to the House of Representatives."

Mrs. Linda Coleman is the Democratic candidate for Congress in North Carolina's Second District, and her campaign has reported to the Federal Elections Commission (FEC) that it has raised over $141,000 But Mrs. Coleman has not filed a Personal Financial Disclosure Statement.

I am filing this ethics complaint because Linda Coleman has failed to file her Financial Disclosure Statements.

Sincerely,

Charles Hellwig
